

About Guild Care

Guild Care is a charity at the heart of the community. We support older people, people with dementia, carers and children and adults with learning disabilities.

Unlike others who run care homes, Guild Care is not-for-profit, so every penny raised goes straight back to the people who need it most – those in our care.

Stay at Linfield House because of its...

Convenient location

Linfield House is located on the outskirts of Worthing town, overlooking leafy Victoria Park, with stunning views across the South Downs. The home is perfectly placed to watch the world go by, and is easily accessible by public transport.

Spacious suites

The home's five purpose-built suites offer neighbourhood-style living, with a communal kitchen and lounge for snacks and socialising. Activities and events unite the residents in the spacious main lounge, with regular outings.

Ability to adapt to changing needs

With a specialist dementia suite and full nursing care available, Linfield House has the expertise to adapt to changing needs.

Style and comfort

Each of the 54 bedrooms boasts the home comforts that make life a pleasure, with private en-suite bathrooms and a classic and cosy décor.

What you can expect from a Guild Care home...

Nutritious and delicious meals

All Guild Care residents benefit from home-cooked, seasonally influenced meals, with personalised menus available for those with special dietary requirements.

Keeping healthy and happy

Residents enjoy services from aromatherapists, chiropodists and hairdressers, amongst many other services on offer. GPs make regular visits, and are on-call for your health needs.

Social events, outings and activities

Our homes have a dedicated Activities Co-ordinator to make sure life in a Guild Care home is diverse, and never dull. From boccia and bingo, to arts and crafts.

Individuality and independence

At Guild Care, we recognise that every resident is an individual and treat them as such. Residents are supported to live the life they choose, based on individual daily routines and activities.
